Welcome to your Site Cover Policy – insurance for your contract works

In this policy wording, we set out what's covered and what's not covered under your policy, your responsibilities, and how we work together with you at claim time.

Who we mean by 'you'

When we say 'you' or 'your', we mean everyone insured by the policy, which is:

- the principal
- the head or main contractor, who may also be the principal
- sub-contractors working on the contract site, unless otherwise stated on your schedule.

Who we mean by 'we'

When we say 'we', 'us', or 'our', we mean Vero Insurance New Zealand Limited.

The documents that make up your insurance policy

Your insurance policy is made up of three parts.

1. This policy wording. It explains what we do and don't cover, the responsibilities you have under the policy, and how to make a claim.
2. Your schedule. It gives details specific to you, including who and what is insured, when cover starts and ends, and the premium you've agreed to pay. The schedule also includes any special terms that might apply, which might also detail things that we do and don't cover.
3. The information in your quote offer, application, proposal, or declaration.

Read your policy wording, so you know what we do and don't cover

We agree to give you insurance cover as outlined in this policy wording and your schedule, as long as your premium payment is up to date.

Read your insurance policy documents carefully, so you know what you are, and are not, covered for. Keep them together in a safe place.

Once you've read this policy wording, contact your broker or insurance adviser if you would like more information.

Headings in this policy wording are only for reference

The headings used in this policy wording are only for reference – they're to help you find information. They're not part of the terms and conditions, so you can't rely on them to interpret the policy's meaning.

Words in italics have specific meanings

When words are in italics, they have specific meanings that we've defined in the 'Definitions' section on page 22. When we use these words, we mean the definitions we give in the 'Definitions' section.

What this Site Cover Policy covers

We'll cover you for loss to insured property.

Your cover also includes the optional benefits over the page if the circumstances they outline apply. You must choose these benefits, agree to pay an extra premium, and they must be listed on your schedule.

Your cover, including the benefits, is subject to the terms, limitations, exclusions, conditions, and cover limits that apply to this policy.

We cover your contract works if they are listed on your schedule

This policy covers the following works, goods, and materials as insured property if they are listed on your schedule:

- the contract works during the period of insurance
- all goods and materials that will be incorporated into the contract works during the period of insurance, that belong to you or that you are responsible for while they are at the contract site.

We cover materials and goods that the principal supplies

This policy also covers other goods, materials, plant, and other items as insured property if:

- they are listed on your schedule
- the principal has supplied them to the contractor free of charge to include in the contract works during the period of insurance
- they will be permanently incorporated in the contract works during the period of insurance.

The sum insured must match the replacement value

The sum insured for contract works must be at least the estimated value of replacing the contract works when the work is completed.

The replacement value must include all materials, wages, freight, customs duties and dues, including the value of any goods or items supplied by the principal.

The replacement value may include subcontractors' works, as long as its value is included in the sum or sums insured.

We will pay no more than what's on the schedule

If you claim for any insured property, we will pay no more than the sum insured that's on the schedule for that insured property.

Defects liability period (also known as Maintenance Period) — we'll cover liability to rectify loss during the defects liability period if that's on the schedule

 - On site under the requirements of the maintenance (or defects liability) clauses of the insured contract, during the defects liability period
 4. This insurance policy must have been in place with us for the entire duration of the contract works through to practical completion. Otherwise, this benefit does not apply, even if it's on the schedule.

All other policy terms and conditions apply to this benefit, along with the basis for settling claims.

- ✓ Any amount we pay under this benefit, we'll pay out of your sum insured.

We will extend your period of insurance for up to 30 days in either of these cases.

- you have no other insurance in place
- you pay an extra excess of $5,000
- cover is subject to pro-rata additional premium and appropriate government taxes and levies
- you pay the premium, and we receive it, within the extension period.

⊕ Any amount we pay under this benefit, we'll pay in addition to your contract works sum insured.

We cover the following site security equipment alarms, cameras, and motion-sensing equipment. We only cover site security equipment if:

- you own the equipment
- you have no other insurance for the equipment
- the loss isn't excluded by the policy.

We will pay up to $5,000 for each loss, up to a maximum of $10,000 for each period of insurance.

Making a claim

If something happens and you think you may need to make a claim, first make sure everyone is safe. Then, contact your broker or insurance adviser or us as soon as possible. Once we have all the information we need, we'll decide the best way to advance your claim.

What you must do if something happens that might lead to a claim

As soon as you know about anything that will, or is likely to, lead to a claim under this policy you must do all the following.

- Tell your broker or insurance adviser or us about what's happened
- Take all reasonable steps to minimise the loss and prevent further loss
- Send us any communications you get about any event that might lead to a claim
- Tell the police if you suspect a crime
- Send us a copy of the relevant construction contract as soon as you can.

If you wish to make a claim on this policy

To make a claim on this policy, you must do all the following.

- Fully complete our claim form as soon as you can.
- Let us inspect any damaged property.
- Provide any other information and help that we need.
- Send on to us immediately any letter of demand or court documents.
- If we ask, provide a statutory declaration to confirm the loss.
- Attend interviews if we ask.
- Pay the excess to us or to the repairer, unless we are deducting it from a claim settlement that we're giving you
- Send us a copy of the relevant construction contract as soon as you can

After you have made a claim

After you have made a claim on this policy, we have the right to act in your name and on your behalf. In your name, we can:

- take any proceedings necessary to use your legal right of recovery from anyone else
- take over, defend, negotiate and settle any claim against you.

If we act in your name, we'll do so at our expense. You must provide all reasonable help and cooperation, at your expense.

After your claim is accepted

If we accept your claim, we may take any of the following actions, and ask you to take action too.

We can take over legal right of recovery

After we have paid or accepted a claim on this policy, partly or wholly, we can choose to fully take over any legal right of recovery or indemnity that you have.

We may exercise this right for our own benefit, at our expense. You must co-operate with us and let us do anything reasonably necessary to enforce our right.

If you do not co-operate with us, you must repay anything we have paid to you or anyone else for your claim.

When a third party is liable

You must not voluntarily and knowingly release any third party from liability that arises from loss insured by this policy, unless you've told us in advance and we've agreed in writing.

Tell us if you find missing property

If we paid a claim for any lost or stolen property and it's later found or recovered you must:

- tell us immediately
- hand the property over to us if we ask.

We have the right to keep property

We have the right to keep property, or proceeds from its sale, if we've paid a claim for it under this policy. If we haven't paid you the full amount of your claim, we may be able to pay you some kind of reimbursement.

You must pay us any reparation if we've paid a claim

If we pay a claim under this policy for loss to property, and anyone makes reparation for it to you (or is ordered to), you must reimburse us for that payment immediately. If we haven't paid you the full amount of your claim, we may be able to pay you some kind of reimbursement.

What to do if you don't agree with our claims decision

If you do not agree with our decision on your claim, contact your broker or adviser.

- Write to us at Private Bag 92 120, Auckland
- Email us at complaints@vero.co.nz

Excess – you will have to pay an excess

The excess is the amount you must pay towards the cost of any claim.

The excess forms the first part of any loss you're claiming.

We'll take the excess away from the amount of your claim, not from any policy limit.

If loss arises from multiple incidents, occasions, or events, the excess (or each relevant excess) applies to each incident, occasion, or event that causes loss.

The excess that applies to contract works also applies to professional fees and removal of debris.

If a loss involving more than one of these items arises from the same original cause, you will only pay one excess— for the item that carries the highest excess.

You'll pay a single excess for multiple events in these situations

If a series of events arises from one of these situations below during a period of 72 consecutive hours, we will treat it as one single event and you will pay one excess.

- Cyclone
- Erosion
- Flood
- Inundation
- Landslip
- Storm
- Tempest
- Subsidence

We'll only pay up to the sum insured

We'll only pay up to the sum insured. Any amount that we pay, or is payable under this policy, will reduce the sum insured by that amount.

You are not covered for any costs that are not included in the sum insured

You are not covered for any costs that you did not include in the sum insured or if you did not include an adequate amount.

The maximum we'll pay for your claim

The most we'll pay under this policy is the following list, added together.

- The sum insured shown on your schedule (including benefits paid from within it)
- Any GST that you've paid or is payable on the sum insured
- Any amounts we are required to pay under these benefits:
 - Removal of debris
 - Professional fees
 - Increased costs during construction
 - Post-loss land reinstatement — we will restore land that's damaged
 - Protection costs
 - Site security equipment

Get our consent before you start repairs

For any loss requiring repair or replacement work which exceeds $5,000, you must get our written consent before starting the work. Even if the work is valued at less than that amount, you must still comply with all policy requirements, including letting us inspect the loss before you start the work.

How we make payments

We will make progress payments to you at reasonable intervals for amounts that you have spent on repair or replacement work that meets the policy requirements. Progress payments are preliminary only, and not final. The amounts you have spent are still subject to final loss adjustment to determine the final amount we'll pay for your claim. We will deduct all progress payments in the final loss adjustment.

You must have spent any amounts that you claim

You must have actually spent any amounts claimed. Before we make any progress payments or final payments, you must give us all invoices, receipts, and any other relevant documents that satisfy us about what you have spent and what repair or replacement work has been done.

Damage which can be repaired

If the loss can be repaired, we'll pay:

- the cost of repairs needed to restore physically lost or damaged parts to a condition that's substantially the same as, but not better than, immediately before the loss
- minus any salvage costs and any excess.

If any parts for the repair cannot be reasonably obtained from usual suppliers of those parts, then we may pay for both these amounts below:

- the repairs, as far as they're possible on the basis of the two bullet points above
- the cost that you would have spent buying any unavailable parts — if they could have been reasonably obtained, in the same condition to the lost or damaged part immediately before the loss.

We will pay for any provisional repairs on the basis that's above, but only if they form part of the final repairs and do not increase the total repair costs.

Damage which can't be repaired – total loss

If the loss can't be repaired, or if the cost of repairs equals or exceeds the cost of replacement, we call it a total loss. We'll pay the cost to replace the physically lost or damaged part with a replacement of equivalent condition to that part immediately before the loss, minus any salvage and excess.

Policy conditions and other important information

You have a duty of disclosure

You have a duty of disclosure, which means you must tell us everything we'd consider material to decide:

- whether to issue or change this policy
- the terms on which we'd issue or change this policy, including the premium we charge.

Your duty of disclosure applies each time you change this policy. If you don't meet your duty of disclosure, we can refuse a claim, reduce any claim payment, or avoid the policy.

! If we avoid your policy

If we avoid your policy, we treat it as though it never existed. You will have to pay back any claim payments we have made to you, and we will refund you any premium you have paid to us.

This might mean you find it difficult to get other insurance in the future.

Tell us if anything changes

If the risk we've accepted to insure your contract site changes, you must tell us in writing as soon as possible.

Examples of change that you need to tell us about include change:

- of main contractor
- in period of insurance
- in fundamental materials – say from timber to steel.

You must take precautions and pay for them to minimise the risk of a claim arising because of the change in risk. You must follow our directions and requirements.

We may change the terms and increase your premium for this insurance because of the change in risk.

You can't pass on your rights or interests under this policy

Without our prior written agreement, you can't assign, or attempt to assign, either of the following to any other party:

- this policy or your interest in it
- your rights to any claims proceeds under this policy.

You must declare the final cost of the contract you've insured

Within a reasonable time of completion, you must give us a declaration of the total final cost of the insured contract that's on the schedule.

If that amount is more than the sum insured for the contract works on the schedule, you must pay us a proportionate amount for the increase in sum insured.

But if the amount is less than the sum insured for the contract works, we can refund you a proportion of the premium you've paid. We will refund up to 50% of the original premium, – as long as you have made no claims.

Information given to us must be correct

Your proposal, application, or declaration form is the basis of this contract.

All statements and information you give us, or anyone gives us on your behalf, must be complete and correct. This includes statements and information:

- that support this policy or any claim
- in any proposal, application, or declaration – whether we get the statements and information verbally, electronically, or in printed form.

If you give incorrect or false information in relation to your claim, or if your claim is fraudulent in any way, we won't pay the claim. If your claim is fraudulent, your policy automatically ends – we will cancel your policy from the date you made the claim or gave us the false information.

If you give us incorrect or incomplete information, or if information is withheld, and your claim is declined or we avoid your policy, you have difficulty getting insurance in the future.

We may change the terms of this policy for natural disaster cover

If we can no longer get or retain full reinsurance protection from any natural disaster that this policy covers, we may change the terms of this policy, including the excess.

We'll send a letter or email to the latest address we have for you, or to your insurance adviser or broker.

The change takes effect at 4.00 pm on the 14th day after we send the letter.

New Zealand law applies to this policy

This policy is governed by New Zealand law and New Zealand courts have exclusive jurisdiction over any legal proceedings about it.

When this policy mentions an Act of New Zealand Parliament, this includes any substitution, amendment, or replacement of the Act. If the Act has been repealed and there is no substitution or replacement, we mean any part of an Act with substantially the same purpose and function. It includes the regulations under the Act.

Premium Payment

You must pay all premiums, levies and tax to us or your insurance adviser or broker within 90 days of the start of the policy, or any subsequent extension. We will only pay a valid claim once we have received the premium in full.

Sanctions

We will not provide any cover, service, or benefit, or pay anything in connection with your policy, including any premium refund, if doing so may breach or risk exposure to any of the following.

1. Penalties, sanctions, prohibitions, proscriptions, preventions, or restrictions under United Nations resolutions.
2. Sanctions, proscriptions, preventions, laws or regulations of New Zealand, Australia, the United Kingdom, the United States of America, or the European Union.

How GST applies when we pay a claim

The sum insured, dollar figures for benefits, and limits to items in this policy exclude GST. Where we are able to recover GST under the Goods and Services Tax Act 1985 GST will be added, where applicable, to claim payments.

Make sure descriptions and facts are accurate

Your cover will be affected if you do any of these things.

- Incorrectly describe any of the insured property, or any building or place where it's contained.
- Misrepresent any fact that's material for estimating the risk.
- Leave out any fact that's material for estimating the risk.

We will not cover any claim that results from an incorrect description, misrepresentation or leaving anything out.

We don't cover you if you breach these terms

To be covered under this policy, you must comply with the terms and conditions outlined in this policy wording.

If we find that you have breached any of these terms or conditions, we can decline your claim or limit your claim.

However, nothing in this policy wording affects our rights under common law, including our right to avoid your policy for not making full disclosure in accordance with your duty of disclosure.

We don't cover you if you have other insurance

We won't cover you for loss or liability where insurance cover is provided by another insurer for the same loss or liability. We won't contribute towards any claim under any other policy.

You must take all reasonable steps to prevent loss

You must, at your cost or expense, take all reasonable steps to prevent loss. In particular, you must take all reasonable care to:

- protect the contract works and all insured property
- engage appropriately qualified and trained labour to carry out the contract works
- maintain all plant, tools, machinery and appliances used in the contract works in efficient working order and condition
- comply with all relevant laws, bylaws, building codes, and local authority requirements
- prevent any loss that is covered by this policy.

You must minimise the risks of undertaking hot work

“Hot work” means work like grinding, cutting, or welding operations, using blow lamps and torches, applying hot bitumen, and any other operation that produces heat.

If you fail to follow reasonable process for hot work, we will invalidate your claim.

You must make all contractors aware that when their employees or sub-contractors do hot work, they must follow these requirements.

- Only do hot work under the supervision of the site foreman, or someone of equal standing responsible for performing the insured contract.
- Adequately protect any other parts of the contract works, as necessary.
- Keep hose reels or adequate portable firefighting equipment ready and at hand near any hot work operations.
- Remove waste material from the contract site at least once weekly. At the end of each working day, clear any combustible waste from nearby any hot work performed that day.
- Carefully check the area where any hot work has been done, one hour after the work is finished.

You must protect the site with tarpaulins

You must securely fasten tarpaulins over any part of the roof or other exposed openings:

- at the end of each day's work
- when work is stopped by bad weather.

We'll put details of your claims on the Insurance Claims Register (ICR)

In buying this policy, you allow us to put details of any claims you make on the Insurance Claims Register (ICR) so other insurers can see them. You also allow us to obtain personal information and details of claims you've made from the ICR.

The ICR is a database of insurance claims. It helps prevent insurance fraud by enabling insurance companies to share details of claims. The ICR is operated by Insurance Claims Register Limited (ICR Ltd), PO Box 474, Wellington 6140.

You also allow us to obtain from ICR Ltd personal information about you we consider relevant to this policy, or any claim made against it. You have the right to access and correct this information under the Privacy Act 2020.
