Welcome to your Farmer's Statutory Liability Policy — insurance for statutory liability connected with your farming operations

In this policy wording, we set out what's covered and what's not covered under your policy, your responsibilities, and how we work together with you at claim time.

Who we mean by 'you'

When we say 'you' or 'your', we mean the entity, insured, insured person, person, people, or people insured named on your schedule.

Who we mean by 'we'

When we say 'we', 'us', or 'our', we mean Vero Insurance New Zealand Limited.

The documents that make up your insurance policy

Your insurance policy is made up of three parts.

1. This policy wording. It explains what we do and don't cover, the responsibilities you have under the policy, and how to make a claim.
2. Your policy schedule. It gives details specific to you, including who and what is insured, when cover starts and ends, and the premium you've agreed to pay. The policy schedule also includes any special terms that might apply, which might also detail things that we do and don't cover.
3. The information in your proposal, application, or declaration.

Read your policy wording, so you know what we do and don't cover

We agree to give you insurance cover as outlined in this policy wording and your policy schedule, as long as your premium payment is up to date.

Read your insurance policy documents carefully, so you know what you are, and are not, covered for. Keep them together in a safe place.

Once you've read this policy wording, contact your insurance adviser if you would like more information.

Headings in this policy wording are descriptive

The headings used in this policy wording are descriptive — they're to help you find information. They're not part of the terms and conditions, so you can't rely on them to interpret the policy's meaning.

Words in italics have specific meanings

When words are in italics, they have specific meanings that we've defined in the 'Definitions' section on page 20. When we use these words, we mean the definitions we give in the 'Definitions' section.

What this Farmer's Statutory Liability Policy covers

We'll cover your legal liability to pay penalties for a legal claim made against you in connection with your farming operations. We'll also cover your defence costs directly connected to the legal claim.

We'll also cover penalties and defence costs that the law allows or requires you to pay on an insured person's behalf for a legal claim made against them. If you're not paying on an insured's person's behalf, we'll cover the insured person for their penalties and defence costs.

The occurrence must have happened in New Zealand on or after the retroactive date on your schedule. The penalties and defence costs must have come from proceedings in a New Zealand court.

You must tell us in writing about the formal demand or legal proceeding against you either:

- during the current period of insurance
- within 30 days of the current period of insurance ending.

Your cover also includes the benefits below, if the circumstances they outline apply.

Your cover, including the benefits, is subject to the terms, limitations, exclusions, conditions, and cover limits that apply to this policy.

Benefits we include in your cover

This section explains in detail the benefits we provide, and what we'll pay for each.

| BENEFIT | PAGE |
|---------------------------|------|
| Acquittal | 4 |
| Continuous cover | 5 |
| Extended reporting period | 5 |
| Preservation of cover | 5 |

Acquittal — we'll reimburse you if you're acquitted or charges are dropped

We'll charge no excess, and reimburse any defence costs you've paid, if either of the following happen:

- all of you are acquitted
- the prosecution of the offence is dismissed or withdrawn without any one of you paying any fine.

This applies even if it was alleged that you intentionally, knowingly, or wilfully committed an occurrence.

Conditions apply to us reimbursing you

If the prosecution is dismissed or withdrawn without a fine being paid, we'll reimburse you 90 days after the date of dismissal or agreement to withdraw the prosecution.

But we won't reimburse you if an allegation is made about the same occurrence or a related one within those 90 days.

And if we reimburse you, and an allegation is made about the same occurrence or a related occurrence after the 90-day period, you must repay us the reimbursement.

What we mean by acquittal — a judgment of not guilty

Acquittal means a judgment of not guilty in favour of you and all other insured persons, after all appeals have been exhausted. The term acquittal does not apply to a legal claim against an insured person that has been settled.

Continuous cover — we'll cover you for as long as we have been your insurer

This benefit covers you for legal claims (or if circumstances lead to legal claims) that originated before the period of insurance if the conditions below are met.

Continuous cover applies if both of the following apply:

- you first became aware of any legal claim against you, or fact or circumstance that could lead to a legal claim against you, after the retroactive date, but before the current period of insurance began
- you don't notify us of the legal claim or fact or circumstance until a date during the current period of insurance or within 30 days after the period of insurance ends.

If continuous cover applies, we'll accept notification of the legal claim, or any legal claim arising from the facts or circumstances during the period of insurance, if:

- you have fulfilled your duty of disclosure, and you have not made any fraudulent misrepresentation relating to the legal claim, fact, or circumstance
- we have been your statutory liability insurer continuously from and after the retroactive date.

Our cover will be on the terms of this policy. However, the sum insured and excess will be as they were on the date when you first became aware of the legal claim or facts or circumstances.

Extended reporting period — you can extend your cover if we cancel your policy

If we cancel this Farmer's Statutory Liability policy or refuse to renew it, you can choose to extend it for another 12 months after the cover ends. This extension will only cover occurrences that happened between the retroactive date and the day the cover originally ended.

The extra 12 months are part of the same period of insurance as the original cover, not an extra period.

If you want to extend your cover, you must tell us in writing:

- before our cancellation takes effect
- within 30 days of your policy ending after we refuse to renew it.

Preservation of cover — we'll cover insured persons if the entity fails to

If the entity is either allowed, or required, to pay penalties and defence costs for a legal claim made against any insured person but fails or refuses to do so, we'll cover the insured person for their penalties and defence costs.

This benefit is subject to the excess shown on the schedule for 'Entity reimbursement' which will be paid by the entity to us. In the event of the entity being placed in liquidation (other than voluntary liquidation), no excess will apply.

Optional benefits — the additional cover you can choose

If you have chosen the following optional benefits, they will appear on your schedule.

Extended defence costs cover — additional cover for defence costs

In the event of any legal claim under this policy being subject to a charge under Section 9 of the Law Reform Act 1936 and as a consequence defence costs cannot be paid under this policy, we'll extend to cover defence costs up to the limit shown on the schedule for any one occurrence and in the aggregate during the period of insurance.

Exclusions — things we don't cover

We won't cover you in these situations.

Building or home defects and mould

We won't cover legal claims in any way connected to:

- Micro-organisms (such as amoeba, bacteria, fungi, mould, and protozoa), mildew, rot, decay, or gradual deterioration in any building or structure
- Addressing the effects of micro-organisms, mildew, rot, decay or gradual deterioration in any building or structure — such as abating, removing, testing, monitoring, cleaning up, containing, treating, detoxifying, neutralising, remediating, or disposing of their effects
- Any building or structure that fails to meet a building code, or doesn't meet the performance, quality, fitness, or durability for its intended purpose
- Any building, structure, or home that fails the required standard for it in any regulation, Act or by-law
- Any building or structure that doesn't have or use appropriate materials, designs, systems, or standards of work for the expected conditions. As a result, it fails to either:
 - stop moisture or water from getting into it
 - manage moisture or water from penetrating it.

Communicable disease

We won't cover any loss, damage, interruption, liability, claim, cost, expense or any other sum of any kind that arises directly or indirectly out of, is contributed to by, or is in connection with any of the following.

1. Communicable disease.
2. The actual, or perceived, fear or threat of communicable disease.
3. Actions by any person, entity or public authority to respond to, control, prevent or suppress communicable disease.

Any other sum of any kind also includes any increased or additional costs or expenses of a claim that this exclusion does not otherwise apply to.

This exclusion:

- takes priority over any other term in this policy or any endorsement (including any that might contradict it)
- applies regardless of any other cause or event contributing at the same time or in any other order to 1–3 above.

When we say communicable disease, we mean any of these things.

- Any human, animal, plant or other disease that can be transmitted directly or indirectly from any organism to another organism by means of any substance or agent, including without limitation, any:
 - virus
 - bacterium
 - parasite
 - other organism
 - any variation of any of the above, whether living or not.
- Any Infectious Disease or Quarantinable Disease as defined in or declared under the Health Act 1956.

Confiscation

We won't cover loss, damage, or liability in any way connected with confiscation, acquisition, designation, destruction or decision by government or local authorities.

Continued offending

We won't cover any penalty or part of a penalty you receive for a continuing offence under any Act that is imposed for a period of time after you knew, or ought to have known, an offence was being committed.

Cyber acts and incidents

We won't cover any loss, damage, liability, cost, or expense in any way connected to a cyber act or cyber incident. This exclusion does not apply if a loss covered by this policy causes a cyber incident.

However, if there's resulting loss to other parts of your property caused by a cyber act or cyber incident, we'll cover it (unless it's excluded under another part of this policy).

Data

We won't cover any loss, damage, liability, cost, or expense of any kind in any way connected to:

- data being totally or partially destroyed, distorted, erased, corrupted, altered, misinterpreted, or misappropriated
- errors in creating, amending, entering, deleting, or using data
- total or partial inability or failure to receive, send, access, or use data for any time
- any loss of use of data, or data being reduced in functionality, repaired, replaced, restored, or reproduced
- the value of any data.

This exclusion applies whether any other causes or events contribute at the same time, or in any order, to any of the above.

Employee claims

We won't cover any penalties or defence costs connected to any existing or intended contract with any current, former, or prospective employee.

This exclusion does not apply to investigations, inquiries, or prosecutions under:

- the Health and Safety in Employment Act 1992
- the Health and Safety at Work Act 2015, including any amendments and replacement Acts.

Excesses

We won't cover any excesses.

We don't cover you if the penalties and defence costs arise from one of these Acts:

- Animal Welfare Act 1999
- Anti-Money Laundering and Countering Financing of Terrorism Act 2009
- Arms Act 1983
- Aviation Crimes Act 1972
- Commerce Act 1986

- Summary Offences Act 1981
- Any other Act that your schedule shows as an excluded Act.

Fire and Emergency Act 2017

We won't cover you where your liability arises directly or indirectly from any fire you intentionally lit that didn't comply with either:

- the Fire and Emergency Act 2017
- any other statutory or local body requirements governing the lighting of fires.

Forestry

We won't cover legal claims under the Health and Safety at Work Act 2015 for your legal liability, penalties, or defence costs if the occurrence is directly or indirectly caused by harvesting or maintaining trees.

We also won't cover your legal liability, penalties, or defence costs if the occurrence is directly or indirectly caused by, contributing to, or arising from forestry waste.

Forestry waste is defined as wood, timber, logs, vegetation, and any associated debris arising out of forestry ownership, management, or operation.

This exclusion does not apply to woodlots of standing timber less than 1 hectare in size.

Inland Revenue Department

We'll not cover any penalties or defence costs resulting from any action, including an investigation or prosecution, by:

- Inland Revenue
- any other statutory authority that collects revenue.

We won't cover any amount that anyone (including the victim of an offence) can claim under the Accident Compensation Act 2001. This includes if:

- the victim hadn't made an ACC claim, or didn't make an ACC claim within the time required under the Act
- ACC declined the claim or limited their liability for any reason.

Non-statutory prosecutions

We won't cover any penalties or defence costs resulting from investigations, inquiries, or prosecutions by parties that are not statutory authorities.

This exclusion does not apply to private prosecutions under these Acts, and we'll consider your claim.

- The Health and Safety in Employment Act 1992
- The Health and Safety at Work Act 2015, including any amendments and replacements Acts.

Nuclear activity

We won't cover loss, damage, or liability in any way connected with nuclear weapons, ionising radiation, or contamination by radioactivity from nuclear fuel, or the combustion of waste from nuclear fuel.

Outside New Zealand

We'll not cover any penalties or defence costs that are in any way connected to proceedings in any court outside of New Zealand.

Prior claims and known circumstances

We won't cover legal claims:

- made, threatened, or intimated against any of you before the retrospective date
- arising from any facts or circumstances that are either:
 - notified under insurance you had before this cover originally started
 - known to you before the retrospective date, and that you reasonably expect to result in a legal claim
- arising from any legal action for something any of you did before the retrospective date.

This exclusion doesn't limit cover under the 'Continuous cover' benefit.

Prior litigation

We'll not cover any penalties or defence costs that are in any way connected to litigation that existed before the current period of insurance.

Prior occurrences

We'll not cover any penalties or defence costs that are in any way connected to occurrences that happened, or allegedly happened, before the retroactive date on your schedule.

Sanctions

We won't provide any cover, service, or benefit, or pay anything in connection with your policy, including any premium refund, if doing so may breach or risk exposure to any of the following.

1. Penalties, sanctions, prohibitions, proscriptions, preventions, or restrictions under United Nations resolutions.
2. Sanctions, proscriptions, preventions, laws or regulations of New Zealand, Australia, the United Kingdom, the United States of America, or the European Union.

Terrorism

We won't cover loss, damage, or liability in any way connected with any act of terrorism. This includes any act of terrorism in any way connected to pollution, contamination, or explosion that is:

- biological
- chemical
- radioactive
- nuclear.

An act of terrorism means any act which:

- may include the use of force or violence, or the threat of its use; and
- is carried out or arranged by any person or group(s) of people, whether acting alone or on behalf of or in connection with any organisation(s) or government(s).

From its nature or context, the act:

- is done for, or in connection with, political, religious, ideological, ethnic, or similar purposes; and

- Inhaling asbestos
- Exposure to asbestos
- Fear of the consequences of inhaling or exposure to asbestos
- Cleaning up or removing asbestos
- Damage to property from asbestos
- Not being able to use property because of the presence of asbestos.

'Asbestos' includes asbestos, asbestos fibres, and any derivatives of asbestos.

Making a claim

If something happens, and you think you may need to make a claim, first make sure everyone is safe.

Then, contact your insurance adviser or us as soon as possible.

Once we have all the information we need, we'll decide the best way to advance your claim.

What you must do if something happens that might lead to a claim

If anything happens that might lead to a claim under this policy, you must do all the following.

- Tell the Police if you suspect criminal activity.
- Tell your insurance adviser or us about what's happened.
- Take all reasonable steps to minimise the loss.
- Send us any communications you get about an event that might lead to a claim.
- Provide us any information or help we may need to assess your claim.
- Help us take any recovery action we choose against anyone we consider responsible for the loss.
- At your cost, cooperate with our assessors, investigators, lawyers, and anyone else we appoint to help us. This includes attending meetings with them when we need you to.

If you don't fulfil these responsibilities

If you don't fulfil the responsibilities outlined above, we may:

- reduce the amount we pay you
- refuse to pay, or decline, your claim
- require you to pay back to us anything we've paid for the claim.

What you must do to help us settle your claim

Obtain our permission before you incur expenses or negotiate claims

You must obtain our written permission before you incur any expense or negotiate, pay, settle, admit, reject, or make any agreement about any claim.

We'll act in your name

In your name, we can:

- take any proceedings necessary to use your legal right of recovery from anyone else
- take over, defend, and settle any claim against you for damages.

If we act in your name, we'll do so at our expense. You must provide all reasonable help and cooperation, at your cost.

We'll share and collect information about your claim

You allow us to share information with third parties about any claim you make under this policy. You also allow us to get information from third parties that's relevant to any claim you make under this policy.

You must complete documents agreeing settlement

Before we settle your claim, you must complete documents describing our settlement for your claim.

Excess — you will have to pay an excess

The excess is the amount you must pay towards the cost of any claim.

The excess forms the first part of any loss you're claiming for.

We'll take the excess away from the amount of your claim, not from any policy limit.

If loss arises from multiple incidents, occasions, or events, the excess (or each relevant excess) applies to each incident, occasion, or event that causes loss.

One event, one excess

Usually, you'll pay an excess for every claim. However, if you need to claim under more than one policy with us for loss caused by a single event at the same location, you'll only pay one excess. This will be the largest applicable excess of all your policies.

Different types of excess can apply

More than one type of excess could apply — the specific circumstances of your claim will determine the total value of the excess you need to pay.

How we settle your claim

Where a benefit refers to a specific limit, or has a limit that's shown on the schedule, that is the most we'll pay for penalties and defence costs under that benefit.

The most we'll pay for all penalties, and defence costs, for all occurrences in any period of insurance is the 'limit of indemnity' sum insured that your schedule shows. This includes any payments for benefits, unless your schedule shows otherwise.

We'll advance you defence costs

We'll advance defence costs to you as and when they are incurred.

You must repay the payments we have made to you for defence costs:

- if the legal claim is found not to be covered
- if the legal claim is resolved in a way that excludes it from cover under this Farmer's Statutory Liability policy.
- Any payments will be repaid to us by you severally, according to your respective interests.

All penalties and defence costs from one occurrence count as one claim

All penalties and defence costs for any one occurrence, or any series of related occurrences, count as a single claim.

If there are legal claims for a series of related occurrences, we'll consider that the proceedings started in the period of insurance when you first told us about any of the occurrences.

What your responsibilities are

This section outlines the responsibilities you, and anyone else insured under this policy, must meet.

Information given to us must be correct

Your proposal, application, or declaration form is the basis of this contract.

All statements and information you give us, or anyone gives us on your behalf, must be complete and correct. This includes statements and information:

- in any proposal, application, or declaration — whether we get the statements and information verbally, electronically, or in printed form
- that support this policy or any claim.

If you give incorrect or false information in relation to your claim, or if your claim is fraudulent in any way, we won't pay the claim. If your claim is fraudulent, your policy automatically ends — we'll cancel your policy from the date you made the claim or gave us the false information.

If you give us incorrect or incomplete information, or if information is withheld, and your claim is declined or we avoid your policy, this may affect your ability to obtain insurance in the future.

You have a duty of disclosure

You have a duty of disclosure, which means you must tell us everything we'd consider material to decide:

- whether to issue, renew, or change this policy
- the terms on which we'd issue, renew, or change this policy, including the premium we charge.

Your duty of disclosure applies each time you renew or change this policy. If you don't meet your duty of disclosure, we can refuse a claim, reduce any claim payment, or avoid the policy. This may affect your ability to obtain insurance in the future.

Tell us if anything changes

Tell us straight away if there's a change that could affect your cover, our decision to insure you, or the premium we charge. Some examples of when you might need to do this are:

- the activities undertaken as part of your farming operations change
- you merge with, acquire, or become a subsidiary of another company
- you are served an abatement notice, receive penalties, are charged with an offence or similar.

If you're not sure whether something is important, tell us anyway. If you don't keep us up to date, we can refuse a claim, or reduce any claim payment, or avoid the policy.

! If we avoid your policy

If we avoid your policy, we treat it as though it never existed. You will have to pay back any claim payments we have made to you, and we'll refund you any premium you have paid to us.

This might mean you find it difficult to get other insurance in the future.

You must take all reasonable steps to avoid liability

You must, at your cost or expense, take all reasonable steps to prevent occurrences that you could be held legally liable for.

We won't cover loss or legal liability if you are reckless or grossly negligent.

Reckless or grossly negligent means you've failed to act in the way a reasonable person would, given the circumstances you faced when the loss happened.

You're responsible for setting your sum insured

You're responsible for setting your sum insured. You must ensure at all times it is enough to cover your legal liability.

You can't pass on your rights or interests under this policy

Without our prior written agreement, you can't assign, or attempt to assign, either of the following to any other party:

- this policy or your interest in it
- your rights to any claims proceeds under this policy.

You must keep this policy confidential

You must not tell anyone or any entity about:

- this policy
- its limit of liability
- the type of insurance
- the premium.

You may only discuss these matters in one of these cases:

- if the law requires you to do so
- if we agree to it in writing in advance.

Policy conditions and other important information

Get our consent before you admit liability or incur expenses

You must get our written consent before you:

- admit any liability
- incur any expense
- make any payment or settle any liability.

We're not liable for any admissions, expenses, payments, or settlements you make before you get our written consent.

The entity agrees to act for you

The entity must agree to act on your behalf to:

- give notice of a claim
- pay premiums that are due and receive refunds of premiums
- negotiate, receive, or accept changes in cover.

We may manage legal claims against you

We're entitled to:

- take over the proceedings
- conduct the proceedings in your name
- have full discretion when conducting the proceedings.

This includes the defence of any legal claims and the prosecution in your name for your own benefit of any claim.

If you disagree with our decision to settle a legal claim, we'll apply the terms of the senior counsel condition below (page 16).

We'll settle claims with your consent

We can settle any legal claim with your consent. If you do not provide your consent to settle, we'll apply the terms of the condition 'We'll consult a senior counsel if needed' (page 16).

If you don't agree to settle, even when settlement is recommended by a senior counsel, our maximum liability for the legal claim will not exceed both:

- the amount that the legal claim could have been settled for
- the defence costs that we've agreed to, up to the date the senior counsel recommended settling.

It matters when you tell us about possible legal claims

During your period of insurance, you may become aware of facts or circumstances that could lead to a legal claim against one of you. If you tell us about these facts or circumstances during the period of insurance, and they later lead to a legal claim, we'll consider that:

- the legal claim was first made against you during the period of insurance when you told us about those facts or circumstances
- you told us about the legal claim during the period of insurance when you told us about those facts or circumstances.

We'll consult a senior counsel if needed

You and we might disagree on whether to settle or defend a legal claim. If so, both of us will appoint a mutually agreed senior counsel to recommend whether to settle or defend it.

The senior counsel will consider:

- the economics of the legal claim
- the penalties
- the costs the third party is likely to recover
- the likely defence costs
- your chances of a successful defence.

We'll pay for the senior counsel's opinion, on top of the sum insured that's on your schedule.

Your existing cover will only apply before a take-over

If you're taken over during the period of insurance, the cover we provide here will only apply to occurrences that happened before the take-over.

Take-over means any of these.

- You consolidate or merge with another person, entity, or group of persons or entities (or both) acting together.
- You sell all or most of your assets to another person, entity, or group of persons or entities (or both) acting together.
- You become a subsidiary of another entity as a result of any applicable law.

Your premium

Your premium is the payment you make in exchange for your insurance cover. Your premium is detailed on your policy schedule.

Paying your premium

Your insurance policy is an annual contract. You can choose to pay annually in full, or in instalments.

Your premium will be higher if you pay by anything other than annual instalments, as we charge you instalment fees.

Making changes to your policy details may affect the premium you need to pay or have paid for the remainder of your period of insurance.

If you pay annually and don't pay the full amount, we may reduce the period of insurance to align with the amount you paid.

Your premium must be paid up to date before we'll pay a claim

If you need to make a claim and you have premium that is less than 28 days overdue, we may do one of these things:

- withhold the claim payment until you've paid the overdue premium
- deduct the overdue premium from the claim payment.

Your policy ends if your premium is more than 28 days overdue

If your premium is overdue by more than 28 days, your insurance cover under this policy ends. Cover stops from the date you have paid up to.

How your policy can be cancelled

You can cancel your policy

You have a cooling-off period if you change your mind

When you first purchase this policy, you can cancel it within 30 days if you change your mind. We'll refund all the premium you've paid if you haven't made a claim.

You can cancel after the cooling-off period

You can cancel your policy at any time after the 30-day cooling-off period. If you haven't made a claim, we'll refund any premium you have already paid for insurance cover after the cancellation date.

We can cancel your policy

We can write to you to cancel your policy

We can cancel this policy at any time by writing to either:

- you at the address or email address on our records
- your insurance adviser.

Your policy will be cancelled from 4.00pm on the 14th day after we send the letter. We'll refund any premium you've already paid us for cover after the effective date of the cancellation.

We'll cancel your policy if you make a fraudulent or false claim

If you make a fraudulent or false claim, this policy automatically ends. We don't need to cancel it in writing, but we may confirm to you in writing that it was automatically cancelled at a particular time. We refund any premium you have already paid for cover after the cancellation date.

We don't cover you if you breach these terms

To be covered under your policy, you must comply with the terms and conditions outlined in this policy wording.

If we find that anyone insured by your policy has breached any of these terms or conditions, we can decline a claim, or reduce the payment.

However, nothing in this policy wording affects our rights or yours under common law, including our right to avoid your policy for not making full disclosure in accordance with your duty of disclosure.

This policy can cover multiple parties as joint insureds

This policy is a joint policy if your schedule shows joint names, or includes the name of a Trust, as being insured.

We view each insured person as acting with the explicit permission of any other. You each have the right to change this policy, make or settle a claim under this policy, or cancel this policy.

Any breach of the policy terms or conditions by one person will prevent all insured people from claiming under this policy.

How GST applies when we pay a claim

The sum insured, dollar figures for benefits, and limits to items in this policy exclude GST. Where we are able to recover GST under the Goods and Services Tax Act 1985, GST will be added, where applicable, to claim payments. All excesses include GST.

We may appoint an adjuster

If we want to appoint a loss adjuster, assessor, surveyor, valuer, or investigator for a claim under this policy, you will be required to cooperate with whomever we appoint.

We don't cover you if you have other insurance

We won't cover you for loss or liability where insurance cover is provided by another insurer for the same loss or liability. We won't contribute towards any claim under any other policy.

New Zealand law applies to this policy

This policy is governed by New Zealand law and New Zealand courts have exclusive jurisdiction over any legal proceedings about it.

When this policy mentions an Act of New Zealand Parliament, this includes any substitution, amendment, or replacement of the Act. If the Act has been repealed and there is no substitution or replacement, we mean any part of an Act with substantially the same purpose and function. It includes the regulations under the Act.

We'll put details of your claims on the Insurance Claims Register

In buying this policy, you allow us to put details of any claims you make on the Insurance Claims Register (ICR) so other insurers can see them. You also allow us to obtain personal information and details of claims you've made from the ICR.

The ICR is a database of insurance claims. It helps prevent insurance fraud by enabling insurance companies to share details of claims. The ICR is operated by Insurance Claims Register Limited (ICR Ltd), PO Box 474, Wellington 6140.
